WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS SAY

Every facet of The Junkluggers' service was superior. From initial communication, the estimation, loading, and follow-up with a charitable donation receipt. Their crew did an excellent job, from quickly and carefully removing large items to loading to conserve truck space on which their charge is based. I highly recommend them!

Barb S. — California ★★★★★

Personnel were very professional AND helpful. Everyone communicated very well with me. My particular clean-out was in a storage facility, and they not only were very well organized, but they even swept the unit out when they were finished! The most important part of your approach is that you try to limit the amount of stuff going to a landfill and are conscientious about separating out items that can go for resale or as contributions to not-for-profit agencies. Thanks for being so green.
